AON'S INTERNSHIP OPPORTUNITIES

Aon currently has excellent summer internship positions available. Aon's Business Internship Program provides interns with 10 weeks of value packed real world experience along with a formal development plan. Below are some of the key components of the Aon intern experience...

- Aon Risk Solutions - Interns within Aon Risk Solutions will gain valuable experience assisting Account Executives on assigned accounts. Interns will reside with our General Industry, Financial or Professional Services or Brokerage groups.

A Variety of Internship Locations...

2011 internship positions will be available nationwide and posted on www.aon.com

A Value Adding Program Development Plan (Curriculum)...

In addition to on the job internship assignment training, our interns actively participate along with their fellow intern colleagues in a formal Development Plan. This provides interns...

- An understanding of the basic functions and types of clients within Aon's businesses
- An understanding of Aon's ethical requirements
- Training geared toward enabling interns to demonstrate an ability to work in a professional business environment
- Opportunities to network with fellow intern peers at program social events and with Aon colleagues/management at weekly interactive speaker forums
- Opportunities to learn and utilize Aon's internal systems
- Opportunities to demonstrate interpersonal and teambuilding skills through many networking events

An Opportunity to Explore Post-Graduation Career Path Opportunities...

The goal of the Business Internship Program is to give students significant exposure to Aon's client base and services through assignments, continuing education and a training curriculum. The Program also provides students with an excellent opportunity to learn and prepare for post-graduate career opportunities at Aon. Upon successful completion of the Business Internship Program, highly qualified interns may be offered post-graduation full-time positions within Aon's 18-month Early Career Development Program.

Qualifications:

Intern selection will be based upon, but not limited to, the following criteria:
