

Life/Health Business Analyst Internship

COUNTRY Financial is offering an internship in the Life/Health Projects & Support division in Bloomington, IL. This internship will begin in December 2009 and will extend up to a full year. The internship requires 15-20 hours/week during the school year and full-time hours in the summer.

Internship description:

- Responsible for support, maintenance, testing, analysis and research of the life/health systems used to support the life and health products.
- Resolves problems encountered by systems users.
- Work with other areas to ensure that interfaces and systems integrations are working correctly.
- Works with manager, supervisor, user areas, and ITS to implement and administer automated processing systems.
- Assist with development of business requirements.
- Look for ways to improve administrative processes and potential solutions.

Required Skills:

- Must possess a technical aptitude to complete projects involving: supporting, testing, and problem resolution of the life/health systems.
- High degree of organizational skills needed.
- Strong communication skills.
- Must possess strong multitasking skills.
- Must be able to work well in a team environment and individually.
- Good understanding of systems/software/computers including PC's, advanced word processing, spreadsheet, database, project management tools (Primavera), VBA, SQL and FOCUS type languages.

Additional Information

- This is a paid internship, available to current college students.
- This internship begins in December 2009 and requires part-time employment (15-20 hours/week) during the school semester and full-time employment during the summer.
- Scheduled hours will be based on the intern's class schedule.
- Hourly salary is $13.00.
- Interested candidates should also apply online at <https://ccservices.taleo.net/careersection/countrycorporatcampus/jobdetail.ftl?lang=en&job=090000313> by November 13, 2009