

Richard Meyers & Associates, Inc.

Contact Person: Christine Emmolo, VP Talent Acquisition
Email Address: cemmolo@rmainc.com
Phone: 908-279-8000
Company Website: www.rmainc.com

Position Title: Risk Management Consultant

Opportunity Location: Chicago, IL

Qualifications:

- To qualify for this highly visible position with excellent potential for career advancement, candidates must have: 4 to 8 yrs of commercial insurance, underwriting, and/or brokerage experience demonstrating strong command of across the following lines of business: Worker's Compensation, General Liability, Property, Asbestos, Auto and other latent defect litigation.
- MBA preferred
- Knowledge and experience of insurance risk management identification, risk measurement, risk prioritization, risk transfer and/or risk acceptance with some alternative risk financing experience is preferred, solid knowledge and proven experience working across the insurance operation value chain - including detailed understanding of how the insurance operation works from initiation of new business through an Agent/Broker - through underwriting of exposure information to development and issuance of coverage and policy forms through policy administration, claims, reinsurance, actuarial, premium audit and internal audit.

Job Description:

Responsibilities include:

- Assess and develop a sophisticated insurance risk management coverage audits to improve operational and entity financial performance
- Utilize detailed loss and exposure information, including conduct research to perform benchmarking of exposure which present to employees, assets and shareholders which would affect the organizations structure, marketing and placement of the insurance coverage to protect the organization
Develop findings and recommendation within the insurable risk forum which are affect overall performance of a carrier, TPA or self insured claim operation and broker pricing and performance
- Assist with the development, execution and analysis of broker request for proposal process to assist clients to evaluate the serving and pricing of the incumbent broker performance and pricing as compared to market alternatives
- Develop, with actuarial support, the amount of total claims leakage and the amount of loss reserves and payments that can be recovered from the remediation of defective or ineffective business process controls and ineffective leading practices.
- Develop action plans, time frames and prioritization of activities to recover leakage.

*If you are interested in this position, please email cemmolo@rmainc.com for more information