We're looking for leaders! Leaders in business, leaders in the community and leaders in life. At Modern Woodmen we're committed to developing leaders & individuals who help others reach their full potential.

Modern Woodmen of America is one of America's leading member-based, fraternal financial services organizations. Our main purpose is to help members plan for their financial security through life insurance, annuity, investment and banking products. We're owned and operated by and for our members, and we continue to grow in size and strength. As a leader of a fraternal organization, you can touch lives with more than financial products - you can positively impact families and communities through our volunteer and member-involvement programs. It's a difference you can be proud to share.

A leadership career with Modern Woodmen is meaningful.

Discover and nurture talent in others. Help them attain higher levels of success.

Build a team of professionals who make a positive impact in their clients' lives and their communities.

A leadership career with Modern Woodmen is rewarding.

Be a part of a growing, dynamic leadership team that commands the admiration of the financial services industry. Multiply your ability to help families and impact communities by developing other financial services representatives. Earn what you are worth. Modern Woodmen leaders are among the highest income earners in their communities.

Role of a Regional Director:

- Achieve regional sales and business goals.
