

JEREMY A. GALLICO

Phone: 815.245.6494

Email: jagalli@ilstu.edu

OBJECTIVE

To obtain an entry-level underwriting position that requires superior analytical, teamwork, and communication skills

EDUCATION

Illinois State University	Normal, IL	Expected: May 2010
Bachelor of Science Degree in Insurance
Major: Insurance	GPA: 3.28
Minor: Spanish	GPA: 3.65

INTERNSHIP EXPERIENCE

QBE Reinsurance Corporation	New York, NY	June – July 2009
IRU, Inc. Intern
<ul style="list-style-type: none">• Created two databases extracting pertinent records from casualty clash and workers' comp treaties• Utilized catastrophe modeling to come up with PMLs and expected premium amounts• Supported staff members in the creation of spreadsheets and updating information systems
International Insurance Internship	Zurich, Switzerland	May – June 2008
Katie School of Insurance Intern
<ul style="list-style-type: none">• Shadowed industry professionals from underwriting, claims, and actuarial departments for four weeks• Expanded knowledge and understanding of how the operations of a large insurance company work• Illustrated desire for knowledge by asking engaging questions during educational sessions

WORK EXPERIENCE

Katie School of Insurance & Financial Services	Normal, IL	June 2008 – Present
Student Worker
<ul style="list-style-type: none">• Webmaster of the Katie School website, including constant upkeep and implementing detailed design• Maintain constant communication with faculty and students in regards to requests and upcoming events• Develop numerous projects at one time, requiring high adaptability and organizational skills
Realty Executives Select	McHenry, IL	2006 – 2008
Realtor's Assistant
<ul style="list-style-type: none">• Analyzed data in relation to houses that are in pre-foreclosure based on facts and various markets• Assessed the price of a house based on reports, data, current market conditions, and intuition• Exposed to an independent work atmosphere centered on various day-to-day projects

LEADERSHIP SKILLS & ACCOMPLISHMENTS

Gamma Iota Sigma – Insurance and Risk Management Business Fraternity		May 2009 – Present
President
<ul style="list-style-type: none">• Execute decisions in an effective, consistent, and fair manner to ensure membership involvement• Spokesperson and reliable resource for events with industry professionals
	Vice President of Internal Affairs	May 2008 – April 2009
<ul style="list-style-type: none">• Ensured plans were successfully implemented by the other internal officers• Distinguished innovative ways to engage members and achieve the mission of the fraternity
Curriculum Development Team – Department of Finance, Insurance, and Law		Aug. 2009 – Present
Student Representative
<ul style="list-style-type: none">• Act on behalf of the students within the Insurance curriculum regarding needs, wants, and expectations• Review the current curriculum to determine strengths and weaknesses of courses and course syllabi• Implement procedures for improvement with professors and department chairs
Student Leadership Program in Risk Consulting – Katie School of Insurance		Oct. 2008 – Mar. 2009
<ul style="list-style-type: none">• Evaluated risk exposures for a local organization and presented our findings• Strengthened leadership and teamwork skills through rigorous activities• Communicated in a business setting in regards to insurance industry topics

Professional Designation Exams: Passed CPCU 520; Sitting for CPCU 557 in January 2010